EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Revive African Football (RAF COIN) is a community-driven initiative designed to revitalize and elevate African football leagues to global standards. By leveraging blockchain technology and community engagement, RAF Coin aims to increase awareness, foster investment, and promote sustainable development within the African football ecosystem. This whitepaper outlines the project's vision, goals, tokenomics, use cases, and roadmap.

PROBLEM STATEMENT

African footballers have consistently graced the world stage with their talent and passion.

Despite the rich history and talent pool of African football, many leagues on the continent face significant challenges in terms of infrastructure, governance, and competitiveness. These challenges hinder the growth and development of the sport, limiting its potential to contribute to economic and social development.

VISION

RAF COIN envisions a future where African football leagues are globally competitive, fostering talent, generating economic opportunities, and inspiring pride across the continent.

Promote sustainable development: Create a sustainable ecosystem for African football, fostering talent development, community engagement, and economic growth.

Empower communities: Empower African communities through football, promoting social cohesion, education, and economic empowerment.

EARLY ADOPTER INCENTIVE/AIRDROP

RAF coin will implement a unique token reward/airdrop mechanism based on time-based minting. Early adopters will have the opportunity to mint tokens every 6 hours over a predetermined period. The total number of tokens minted during this period will constitute 50% of the total supply of RAF coin. This approach will reward early adopters, incentivize consistent participation, and also help prevent bots and other malicious actors from unfairly acquiring tokens.

Minting modalities. RAF coin will provide a user-friendly platform where early adopters can sign up to mint tokens every 6 hours.

TOKENOMICS

PRESALE

RAF coin will conduct a presale which is a crucial step in propelling our project towards a successful launch. This presale provides an opportunity for early supporters to acquire RAF coin at a discounted price while simultaneously generating essential liquidity for the project's long-term stability.
